Someday

Slowly
Spins a web around our lives
With a thread of love that binds
And I know
Someone left you long ago and you said
From now on I'm on my own
Gonna walk this road alone

Someday love
Will show you can trust
It's not another road to a broken heart
Someday love
Will show you can trust that I won't walk away
Someday

I won't change my mind
Nothing sways this heart of mine
All good things will come in time
And I know that you promised long ago
Not to have or to hold
With a single band of gold

Someday love
Will show you can trust
It's not another road to a broken heart
Someday love
Will show you can trust that I won't walk away
Someday

Oh, I know
There will be no other love
This is what we're made of
Given heart and soul to rise above

Someday love
Will show you can trust
It's not another road to a broken heart
Someday love
Will show you can trust that I won't walk away
Someday
